College Chimes.

Dear EVANGELIST.—Enclosed please find $1.00 for the M. E. Fund, and a pledge for $10.00, for Ashland College. My husband subscribed last Fall when brother Holsinger was here. I feel it my duty to do something.

ESTHER METZGER.

Truly, sister, we all should throw in our mite. We are marching together to victory, and it we abandon a work, a task which our church in general Convention assembled undertook, believing and knowing it to be wise and good, we would not be doing our duty to ourselves, to our fellow-men and our God.

DEAR BRO:—Do not know what to say in regard to the College, as I am a poor man, and we are in close circumstances: just finishing our church and a few of us have the expenses to bear, and I am making arrangements to prepare for the ministry, and will attend college for one year; but that does not pay the debt, so I will do something. Do not publish my name only as a BROTHER.

The $10.00 you pledged will be bread cast upon the waters that shall return to you largely increased. The poor man who is willing to give liberally of what he possesses to help along a worthy work, and labors to make himself an able workman for the Lord, will never be left or forsaken. A College is an honor to the Church, and if the debt on our college is removed, it will offer every possible inducement, to worthy persons who will prepare to enter the ministry of the Brethren Church.

Dear Friends of Ashland College:—I will send with this note my pledge, what I at present feel like donating toward liquidating the debt of Ashland College. If you wish to publish the amount, please withhold my name. I do hope that the debt may be lifted, that the members of our church will see the necessity of an institution like Ashland College, and come to the rescue. I would be very sorry to learn that our college had gone into other hands. I regard it as the flower and pride of the church.

SISTER.

So we all would regret it if the college would pass from us. We do not know how much we would be sorry over such a misfortune. We would be sorry for the great loss to the Church. Five or six thousand dollars will save for us a property that we greatly need, and one worth $60,000 dollars. We could not build an institution half-way respectable for less than $40,000, and shall we throw this opportunity away, bear the shafts of ridicule of the persecuting German Baptists from the Atlantic to the Pacific? NO. Sister: 175 or 200 as liberal as you have been will pay the debt.

The extraordinary popularity of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the natural result of its use by intelligent people for over forty years. It has proven itself the very best specific for colds, coughs, and pulmonary complaints.

A Plea for Ashland College.

Much has of late been said and written in behalf of this Institution, and as I am interested, I feel like throwing in my mite for its success.

That we as a church need such a school, is evident and if we lose it we will not be able to build another for the next generation to come.

The brethren church has accepted it and pledged herself to sustain it. If she fails, the confidence will be so shaken that many will turn away in disgust. No, we can not afford to lose it; $65,000 worth of property sacrificed for 20,000 or 25,000; all our money lost that has already been paid. All that is now pledged conditionally, and Bro. Holsinger's labors for two years all in vain? We cannot entertain the thought. Ashland College has many warm advocates. Many noble-hearted brethren and sisters have responded with liberal donations. The Trustees have had a heavy burden hanging upon them, with hearts and minds full of anxiety, feeling the financial responsibility resting upon them, and Bro. Holsinger's sacrifices. I often think of him when we are sitting at home by our own pleasant friends with our families, around us enjoying all the comforts of home. We sympathize with our brother, who, for the sake of the church and school, has broken up his dear old home, his family scattered, and he not where to lay his head (of his own) like a wanderer, from church to church and from door to door, through rain and storms, and disappointments. Shall such sacrifices go unappreciated? Shall his labor all be in vain? Methinks I hear from thousands of anxious, throbbing hearts, the united responsive answer: No.

Bro. Holsinger has done much, but the field is large, and it is slow work. The interest is increasing rapidly; don't wait for Holsinger to come; go to work in every church, by taxation or otherwise, as the church may agree; just so that nothing compulsory be done, but all a free-will offering. Send in your reports to the Evangelist College Fund.

Six thousand dollars more and this is not much among so many. Let us raise the amount at once and soon the glad news will be heralded, ASHLAND COLLEGE IS FREE. Our enemies (if we have any) will be confounded; the Brethren will rejoice and praise God from whom all blessings flow.
